<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning new information to help advocate for patients and act as a professional in my nursing profession • I liked the readings before the class, so it provided additional information before learning about a topic. • I loved how much I learned in this course, and everything that I have learned will continue to follow me throughout my journey. • I like that we were able to get a better insight of the nursing profession. • I liked the lessons each week. I found them really interesting and informative. This is a writing intensive course; 40% of the assignments must be based on written assignments. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I wouldn't assign so many essays, and instead I would assign more projects that didn't take up as much time from my "other important courses." • I wish there were more grades than just the essays.

Student Comments:

- I like that the material is something that transformed from a collective mindset of good nurses to a curriculum to breed good nurses.
- “that professor williams gave us the rubric ahead of time so we know what is expected of us and she grades fairly”
- I really liked learning about all of the ethical principles.
- I think this course is very important to nursing students. It reminds us that nursing isn't always about procedure, but there are other aspects to nursing as well including ethics, image, and professionalism.
- What I liked best about this course was that it was very interesting, extremely informative, and Dr. Williams was an excellent professor who really cared about her students and their futures.
- I liked the material that was taught.
- If I was teaching this course, I would not change a thing. It ran very smoothly, and the syllabus was very clear on what the assignments were on a weekly basis.
- Grading was a bit tough, but understandable. If I taught this course, I wouldn't have so many presentations.
